The baptism candidates were asked before being plunged into the water, how long will you follow Christ? Their response was, “I will follow Him, until the day I die!” Our 4 young people bore witness in a public display of faith in obedience to Christ’s command, ‘Repent and Be Baptized.’ Nancy is a 13-year-old Haitian girl who said, “I am very happy to accept Jesus in my life. God opened the door of my heart. My life was empty and very difficult. But God has been protecting me, and calling me all this time. I didn’t understand, but now I am in Him. Now the emptiness in my life is full of eternal life. When I am alone God is my only friend, and He never leaves me alone. He is with me in the good and the bad.”

Another Haitian young lady named Sonia said, “Ever since I was little, my mama always took me to church. I didn’t know God, and I was bored in church. Now, I know God, I am happy, and I am very happy to be baptized. I am 15 years old, and I was born in the Dominican Republic. Because I am a Haitian it is very difficult for me to live in this country but with God all is possible. Even though my father is dead, God gives me strength and now God is my father. He is everything to me.”

Miquel, the 12-year-old pastors son said, “I was born in the church and since I was little, I have been a Christian. A few days after I was born, I was dedicated to the Lord. I have been raised in the Gospel, and I feel good to have been raised that way. You may ask, why have I stayed in the Gospel? I have remained in the Gospel because I see what happens to people on the streets. People who are lost get worse and worse each day. I know I am better off in Christ and He gives me peace in my heart.”

Miquel’s half-sister, 14 year old Rutmeri said, “I have never known the streets nor being in the world. My strong desire is to follow in the steps of our Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to God for my parents that always tell me to follow in the correct path; the way of life and truth.

Every day I learn things that edify and renew my life. I know that things will turn out good for me in God. Difficult things happen, sickness and sometimes family problems, but we have our great comforter, and our heavenly Father even though we go through trials.”

Such wonderful testimonies of these newly water baptized young believers! They bring hope to all of us that the Holy Spirit is actively bringing souls into His Kingdom. Thank you for your investment in young lives who have pledged to remain faithful until that day!
