Taco Munch Holy Hunch

After a long day of work, we were famished and we set out to look for ‘Street Tacos’. We were headed for the seaside plaza of Bucerias. I told Pastor Angel that I wanted to stop by what was my favorite savory Taco place in the past. I knew they have been shut down for many years. I also knew that they were still out of business. It didn’t make sense to take a detour down memory lane while we were all starving. I felt a very strong leading to go to Alejandra’s home and speak to her.

I knew that the owner still lived on the property in a tree house style dwelling on pilings. Her husband met me at the gate and told me she was not well. Her foot was partially amputated due to diabetes. He opened the gate, and I called out to her by name with affection. She was so glad to receive me. I was very pleased to see her, my dear friend Alejandra. We hugged. I told her how much we missed her and the fantastic food she cooked up for us on her huge hot grill.

I thanked her for the many years of service feeding my large visiting groups of gringos. Her restaurant is still mentioned by friends who have come to minister here in Mexico. I could see that she was very weak and sickly as she showed me her amputated foot. I took a minute and lovingly shared Jesus with her. Within a short 5-minute visit, Alejandra prayed and gave her heart to Jesus. She was grateful to me for praying for her healing and leading her to the Lord. She was also grateful for the visit. A few days later we dropped off an invitation with directions to our church in Cardboard Landia. Alejandra’s husband patted his heart with his hand in gratitude for our follow up visit. Please say a prayer for Alejandra for her spiritual and physical well being.

Together we’re changing lives through the love of Christ.

Thank you and God Bless!
