Cecilia showing her crayon version of creation.

Yes, we still make house calls and hospital visits along with providing counsel and prayer. I am very thankful for the lives of the dear Mexican Pastors and volunteers that we have the privilege of serving alongside. You never know from day to day what pastoral duty you will be called upon to perform. Pastor Luis Miguel and I were asked to bless a home. You know, an "Old Fashioned House Dedication". Sometimes this service is performed after someone has moved into a new place and they want to have a blessing pronounced over their dwelling and family. But, not this time!! How about a twist that ratchets up the desperation of those living in a humble cardboard abode. Something that leaves two sisters and their families in a fearful and frantic state...

There was a falling out between a neighbor and the sisters. Their spiteful neighbor dug up dirt from the cemetery and slung it on the floor inside their new home. Why? To put a curse on all living in the house, so they would become sick and die. Not only did Lupita and Yadira believe that their home was under a spiritual curse but they were also aware that the dirt from the grave yard is full of deadly bacteria! This was a God Size opportunity to minister to these poor families who are not yet Christians but are looking for God's protection over their lives.

We had a wonderful time sharing a message of hope to dispel the works of darkness; Jesus Christ is the Light of the World and has given us the victory over sin and death! We rebuked the curses and pronounced blessings, anointing the household with oil. Huddled together in a corner were other neighbors who witnessed this sacred event and asked if we will also bless their homes. Now the two sisters come regularly to the mission and serve in the children's programs, washing the cooking utensils and sweeping the floor. It is such a blessing to see God at work!

Pray for more Children to be reached and sponsored.

Pray for these two sister's (Lupita and Yadira): for salvation for them and their households.

Pray for the expansion of God's kingdom through this ministry.

Pray for Our health and provision.

Together we are Life Savers!
