MINISTRIES INTERNATIONAL

Lee & Herbert Jimenez on top of a Human sacrificial altar

Cusco, Peru was the capitol of the Inca Empire, enthroned in the central Andes. This imperial city once ruled the Indian nations of South America, and extended into the countries known today as Columbia, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, Chile, and Argentina. The Incas were skilled engineers, building roads and suspension bridges which spanned canyons and rivers. The magnificence of their empire can still be seen today in the great stone carved walls precisely fitted together without mortar, and the cut terraced mountainsides to facilitate irrigation of crops and reduce erosion.

There is a dark side to all of this splendor and glory of days gone by. That is the religious practices of the Incas which fueled and drove their empire. They were on a religious quest to spread their enlightened culture. They worshiped their emperor and the gods of the sun, moon, earth and sea. The priests began every day with prayers, divination and offerings. In their religious ceremonies they sacrificed snakes, llamas and humans.

I climbed to the top of a sacrificial site and saw where they carved a stone outline of the human figure which acted like a lopsided bowl, pouring the victim's blood into a hand hewn stone channel directed to trickle down the side of the mountain. The Andes Indians still practice many of the superstitions and idolatry of their religious ancestors. Demonic strongholds enslave and oppress these 7 million people, but your prayers and support of this ministry are helping to break down the walls of darkness that have separated these people from the true and living God.

Indian peasants living harsh lives on the outskirts of Cusco.

Pastor Pepi & Lee with Bible school students.

Those of you who support this ministry are helping to make a difference and set the captives free. Through 'Vida Internacional', our video Bible school curriculum, we are training up young Inca warriors for Christ's kingdom.

We thank God for Pastor Pepi Trillo who is overseeing the training of these young champions for Christ. Pastor Trillo embraced our materials with great enthusiasm as a gift from God to help train the future pastors and missionary teams that they are currently sending out.

Together we touch the World!
