“I want to help these children, their children and their children’s children.” Carol said, passionately sharing her heart. “I want to make a difference in their lives; change the course of their lives and impact generations to come.” I think she might live to see it. Her grandmother and great grandfather both were active and sharp, living into their late nineties.

Without Christ, we could do nothing; because of Him all things are possible. By faith, we purchased the property for the LSMI ministry base, using the cash value of my life insurance policy. By faith, churches and individuals rose to the occasion, helping us to break ground, purchase materials and hire help. By faith, God continues to speak to hearts, and by His grace His people give as we move ahead. The building has been and still is a miracle unfolding before our eyes, and we are awed as we watch it rise up out of the dust and mud of our little community.

Recently, God sent two mission teams to our aid through CompassioNet Impact, headed up by Pastor Ric Lehman. We were encouraged as they labored on the project, moving it closer to completion. Thanks to the Dakota Wesleyan College “Spring Break group”, and to the team from the Vineyard Community Church of Des Moines, Iowa. Because of the work of these two groups, we are now ready to move into the next phase... Roof, utilities, etc, for the children’s ministry area. Estimated cost is $5,000. Pray with us that the Lord would move upon hearts to give.

Carol confesses that she never imagined that her heart would bond to the children like it has. The little ones in our neighborhood are not hard to love. Karen from Vineyard stepped out with Carol to run an errand. As they tracked down the dirt roads dozens of sweet voices called out from behind doors, under the trees and around the corners. Over and over again they heard "Hola Señora Carol". Together we are reaching out, Feeding Children Body, Soul and Spirit!

Together We are Life Savers,

Ju & Carol
