The children were reciting John 3:16 when eight year old Emiliano turned to Kaitlin, a volunteer at the community center, and said, "You know, Jesus is the only way to God. He really is the only way!" Our teacher's aide from Michigan could not hold back the tears. She shared with me how this little one had touched her heart as he expressed his faith in Christ with conviction and sweetness. The week before, Kaitlin who winters here in Mexico, was talking to a friend who is a prayer intercessor. Her friend told her that she believed that the Lord was raising up a very special young man at the center where she was volunteering. Kaitlin said, "I know that she was talking about Emiliano, he really loves the Lord!"

Earlier the same day I took Emiliano with me as I ran errands. He told me that he thought I had some pesos under the car seat. He bent down and looked under the seat and found seven pesos. Later he handed me the money and said, "I know that God does not want me to steal. It's wrong." As he dropped the coins in my hand, he told me that he hadn't had anything to eat that day and that he was hungry. I took him and got him something to eat. I try to take time on a regular basis to encourage him and share with him one on one about loving and serving the Lord. I often tell him that I believe that God has a calling on his life to be a pastor.

Pray that God will raise up many disciples who will love Him with a pure heart, expressed in both word and deed among these children.
