I had a dream many years ago while working in Guatemala. I dreamed I was on a lush Caribbean island ministering to fisherman of African descendant who spoke Spanish. I knew that it was a “God dream”, it was like a snapshot in the Spirit; a glimpse into my future. Upon waking, I also knew that it was most likely the Dominican Republic. Since that time I now have a dear grandson, Diego Gabriel Muscoso, who’s father was born in the D.R. I have a burden for the impover-ished children from his village of Oviedo, Pedernales. Destiny has been calling me to rise to the task, but I didn’t know how to respond to such a great need, lacking the material means to meet the challenge.

While ministering at Crossroad Church in Georgetown, Delaware a contractor told me that he felt God wanted him to donate a metal building to our ministry. I immediately knew God was fulfilling the desire of my heart to reach these needy children. As soon as possible I jumped a flight to explore the D. R.; to investigate what God was doing! I arrived at the town of Oviedo and met up with a relative of my grandson, a godly man, a highly respected school teacher named Henry who also has a great burden for the children suffering in poverty. Together we walked through the slums meeting with the families where the poorest of the poor lived, sharing with them our desire to assist them through Vida Internacional. We prayed for them and blessed them and many of the mothers promised their support to serve in the Community Center.

I was amazed that within a few days we met with the Governor, a Senator, a Congressman, two Mayors and 5 Councilman all pledging their support in donating land. (A parcel in a prime location of what will become the center of town, on main street.) They even went so far as to make available construction equipment and organize volunteer labor. I was completely blown away by the sincerity of heart and the warm reception in which we have been received. We also met with a number of D. R. Christian volunteers pledging to serve the children alongside of Henry who will be our national director. Pray for us as we are stepping out in faith to obey the Lord in the expansion of the ministry! We believe the future is now. God's favor and grace is lavishly being poured out on behalf of these little ones.

Together we make a difference, in Mexico, the Dominican Republic and beyond!
