Children are many times called the church of the future. NOT! These dear ones are the CHURCH of TODAY! Pastor Juan Ernesto our Vida Internacional representative in Nagua, in the north of the island is doing an incredible job ministering to & developing children in the ministry. This man of God brought a homeless family of seven into his home which also serves as their church building. The 5 children all seem rather small for their age, most likely due to lack of nutrition and trauma in their lives. These children are very bright and have fallen in love with the Lord even though their parents have a lot of issues. Carolyn, age 13 leads the Church worship and dance team consisting of just young girls. Their ministry is inspirational and precious. Among these young worshipers is Carolyn's 4 year old sister who loves to dance and choreograph choruses.

The word I shared on Psalm 1 was very well received by the congregation and many stood up to accept Christ as their savior. My throat was dry while preaching and one little girl was so concerned that my voice was giving out that she approached the Pastor and asked if she could bring me water so I could continue to preach. She carefully walked up to me carrying a glass mug covered by a tea saucer, curtsied and offered me a drink of cold water with an intense look of compassion on her face.

Later, I was speaking to Carolyn's dad when a little 11 year old boy named Oliver interrupted asking permission to speak. He said to me, "Mister, your message really impacted my life." He was so sincere. I was touched by his words. Thank you for allowing me to minister to the children, for the Kingdom of God is truly theirs. Together we are helping to feed these children. I want to do more to subsidize the CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS. Help me to help them...

Together we are impacting little lives! Ju & Carol
