GREAT BALLS OF FIRE!!!! While hauling a travel trailer there was a huge thunk, bam, slam kabam!!! I looked in the side view mirror and saw nothing but great balls of fire. I pulled off the highway 287 north just outside of Amarillo, Texas at 6.30am. Our left side camper tire passed us going over 65mph, off into the sunrise & we never found it. We prayed & gave thanks. IT COULD HAVE BEEN A LOT WORSE. God has been telling us for years now to take breaks and recreate. As we are approaching our “50 years married” mark, you can count our vacations on one hand. It just isn’t something we’ve ever done. Here we were taking a “real vacation” and we were broken down on the side of the road. We decided to turn our lemons into lemonade, sharing Christ with all who came along to help us.

A man stopped to help who was out of fellowship with God and Lee spent at least an hour sitting in his car talking to him and encouraging him that morning. He had lost a daughter the year before. When the wheel on the other side started to wobble, we were once again immobilized; this time at a Ute Indian reservation. While we waited for repairs not a day went by that we didn’t have opportunities to talk to people about Jesus. The hot tub was like the well at Samaria.

Hardy Phelps was the only white boy raised on his Navajo Reservation. His father was a school teacher. He is married to a Navajo woman and practices the Navajo Religion. Lee spoke to him about what true faith in Christ is & he said “I love your perspective on faith & how you express it”. His son is a Christian, but Hardy is still searching. He said Lee answered many of his questions and the things he wrestles with. We were invited to his gig at the Bingo hall. He acknowledged Lee publicly, pointing out his friend who “came all the way from Texas”. Hardy is searching for the truth. Jesus said “I am the way, the truth & the life”. Pray for his salvation.

We are grateful for God’s hand that was all over our trip. We got home safely and slept in our own beds. Diego said, “This experience makes me really believe in God’s protection over our lives.”

We are thankful for your prayers and loving support.
