Many of our ministry partners ask me, "How are Carol and the Kids?", so, in what is becoming a tradition with the ministry, this newsletter is for you! God is so good to allow us to live in peace as the ministry is continuing to grow.

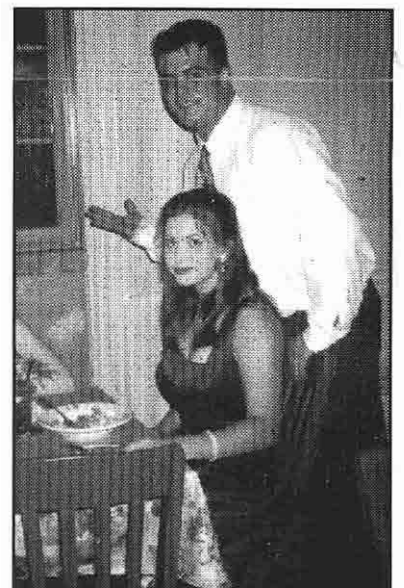

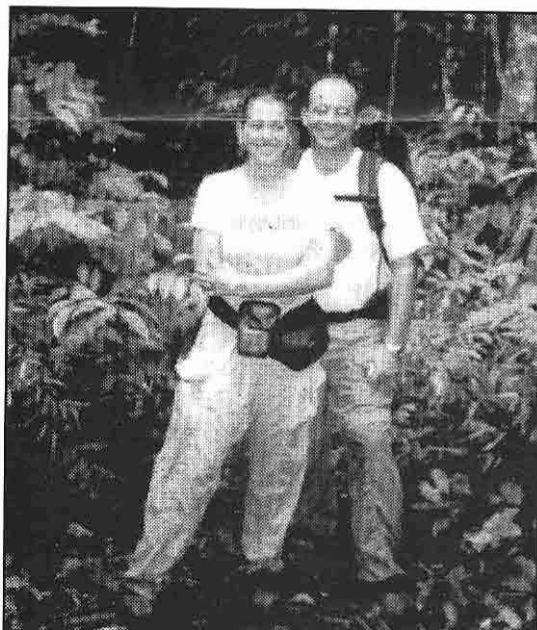

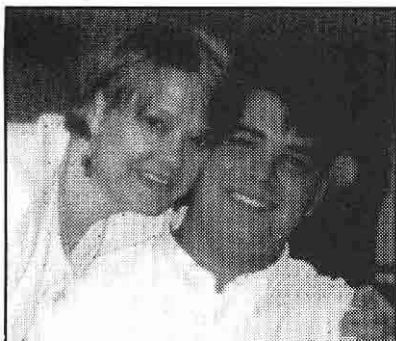

Josh turned 21 on December 6th, the same day that Carol and I celebrated our 23rd wedding anniversary. He received a medical discharge from the Marine Corps this August, and is attending community college. He is considering pursuing an International business degree, and is also waiting tables in an Italian restaurant.

Amy is in the 10th grade and turned sweet sixteen this summer on July 2. She is currently in Driver's Ed and enjoys track & field. She is in choir and Honors English, Biology and History. Both our girls are active in their youth programs & serve in the nursery of our local church. Amy's highlight of the year was her trip to the Amazon this summer where she saw firsthand the impact our Video Bible Schools are having in remote impoverished villages.

Sarah is in the 8th grade and celebrated her 14th birthday on June 6th. She serves in student council, and is on the varsity basketball team at school. She's still a soccer fanatic, playing on a local team both Spring and Fall. She has been recruited for a competitive team and will be playing for them this Spring. It's amazing to see the girls chatting online with "instant messenger" while the telephone is stuffed in their ear, their fingers flying across the keyboard as they conference with their friends on several levels.

Carol is the cosmic glue that holds us all in orbit. She enjoys a brisk morning walk every morning, runs the ministry office out of our home, while she keeps all of us on track with all our activities, including running me to and from the airport. We are truly blessed and grateful to God and to our ministry partners for enabling us to carry out the work of this ministry.

In His Service,

Lee & Carol
