Twenty-five years ago, Carol and I were united in marriage and ministry. The Summer of 1975, Carol Shadix was a Southern Baptist summer missionary to Virginia Beach, Virginia. I was an apprentice free lance artist and was doing an art show on the boardwalk. To make a long story short, on December 6, 1975, Carol and I were married in Birmingham, Alabama. During our first year, we served leading a home group which met in our trailer in Severn, Maryland. On our first anniversary, we were sent out from our home church to assist in launching a church on a farm in Centerville, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. It was there that our first child, Joshua was born on our second anniversary.

After four years of service there, we shipped off to Liberty Bible College in Pensacola, Florida. During that time our two daughters were born. I graduated with a Masters in Theology, and in 1985, we planted a church in Americus, Georgia. In 1987 we headed for the border, and served in Mexico until 1993. Today, our dream of making disciples throughout the Spanish speaking world has taken our ministry into 12 countries!

It has been a marriage made in heaven, full of trials and triumphs. We look forward to our next 25 years. During the celebration of this milestone in our ministry, we want to thank all of you who make it possible through your prayers and support.

Together We Touch the World!

*Love,
Lee & Carol*
