Seasons Greetings from the Short Clan!

It's time again for our annual update on our family. Josh and Ruth celebrated their third anniversary on November 7th. They are on the road again. Josh is delivering groceries across country in an eighteen wheeler. Where ever they go they are at home. Their little dog Sugar loves to travel with them. Josh hopes to get a wireless notebook computer and begin college by extension while he bunks down at the truck stop for the evenings. Josh turned 28 years old on December 6th.

Our daughter Amy married Ira Martin in a private ceremony that I had the privilege of officiating. They tied the knot on October 20th. She was a beautiful bride. They plan to celebrate their one year anniversary with a public ceremony inviting their friends and family. Amy is working as a dental assistant and Ira is a shift manager at Jack-in-the-box. They live in an apartment on Lake Houston. They are happy as they are living their lives together. Amy turned 23 years old on July 2nd.

Sarah, our Chiquita is 21 now and attending classes at Houston Baptist University. She lives downtown and works in customer service at a window coverings manufacturer. She lives in the section of town that has a lot of Arabs. She is making friends among the Middle Eastern people and is picking up the language. She called me as she was feasting on goat with a Jordanian Christian friend recently converted from Islam. He was debating with a Saudi and a Lebanese.

Carol, Sarah, and Jack, evacuees during hurricane Rita.

Sarah asked me to interpret some Biblical passages that they were discussing. The Jordanian told the other two "turn or burn in Hell" and the Saudi walked away in a huff.

Carol and I celebrated our 30th wedding anniversary which shares the same day as Josh's birthday. I am encouraged to see the Lord moving in the lives of our children and their spouses.

We want to thank you for your prayers and financial support for this ministry. We pray God's blessings on you and yours in this new year 2006. We are excited about what God is doing and what He is going to do. We are believing that in this New Year, extraordinary dreams will come to fruition for the glory of God and the furtherance of His kingdom. We believe that your life and ours will make a difference. It is up to us to seize the day, so that the scales will be tipped. Souls will be saved. Disciples will be made. In this time we will arise and lead lost souls into the kingdom of His dear son. We appreciate your partnership as you make it possible for us to continue. We'd like to ask those who have not joined our support team to prayerfully consider taking part.

Together We Touch the World!
