Carol and I have walked hand in hand together pursuing Jesus and His Kingdom. This December we celebrated our 40th anniversary. Our “Jesus Journey” has been a wild ride. We have engaged in this quest with passion, and have experienced our share of heartbreak and trials along the way. We remain hopeful and hold to the promise that if we cleave to Jesus and to each other that He will not only see us through, but continue to give us joy and sweet fellowship.

As we look back over the years, we remember the many wonderful people that we have met along the way that have joined with us arm in arm sharing the journey. We thank God for these co-laborers and partners in ministry and see God’s blessings on our joint efforts as we continue stepping out together in the rhythm of His heart beat. We see lives changing and smiles of hope on children’s faces here in Mexico, the Dominican Republic and now the ministry is growing and reaching into Haiti. We currently have a mission there with 60 children and 40 adults.

We know the journey will never be easy, but we anticipate that the seeds we have sown over these past 40 years will break forth into an increasing harvest of hope and passionate love for our coming King.

Thank you for your love, prayers, and support and for taking this “Jesus Journey” with us.

Together we are Life Savers,

Lee & Carol
