Ministry happens...This was unlike any birthday before. A Mexican volunteering at the ministry base told me that the next day was his birthday. I told him it was my birthday too. Instead of celebrating my 56th Birthday alone, Carol and I took a cake, some napkins and a knife and paid a neighborly visit. We knocked on the rustic door of a very humble dwelling. Sitting on makeshift furniture of 5 gallon buckets, our wives and his two daughters sang a Mexican birthday song. The 32year old man cried and cried and cried. This was the first time he had ever had cake on his birthday.

A gentle giant was feeling blue. He felt abandoned, alone and had a great need for clothes that fit. Imagine being 19 years old 6'4" tall and weighing 340lbs, and living in a country that doesn't manufacture your size clothes. Kevin sacrificed and took a moral stand, giving up his passion, American football at the University in Monterey, Mexico. He did not want to participate in the immoral victory parties. His pastor sent word of his need; He and his mother wept as LSMI was able to supply him with a new wardrobe. His brother said, "This is God rewarding Kevin for living a Godly life!"

We saved the best for last. This month LSMI hosted a three day teaching seminar for Pastors and Leaders with Dr. Dale Yerton. It was incredible. The lives of church leaders were impacted. We had 27 pastors and more than 100 leaders in attendance. I heard one testimony after another of how God used Dr. Yerton's teachings to give them HOPE. Hope for a future. Hope for a glorious, victorious, overcoming Mexican church in her time of desperate need. Your prayers and support change lives.
