Cartonlandia, San Vicente Mexico...

I have been called a lot of things by a lot of people, but no other name sounds sweeter than "Pastor". Some have called me Bishop; others have called me Apostle out of respect for the works that I raise up. Out of love I share their tears and pain and it humbles me and blesses me that they see past that I am from a different culture, with a funny accent. They see past all of that and see my heart and the love of God for them. It is not a title or position or appointment, but a heart connection.

I'm the one they want to marry, bury, dedicate their children and give them counsel. I care for their souls. It is my joy to see God heal their hearts and bind up their wounds. I love to mentor my team and encourage their participation as pastors, but for some reason the people in the congregation wait for me to come. There is no greater call than simply caring for their souls. These poor and needy people see beyond the social, economic, cultural differences. I'm the one they wait for to call on. They trust me. It is a privilege and a pleasure to minister to them.

I want to thank all of you who through your prayers and your contributions, make it possible for me to be a pastor to the poor, to the least, and to the last.

Together we are light in the darkness,

Together we are Vida Internacional

Praise Report: Our pastor in Haiti, Pastor Isacc Roger and his wife Dominica have become parents of a new baby boy! This baby is a miracle. Thank you all for praying and giving to help this young family.

Prayer Request: Continue to pray as we begin to make plans to build on our two properties on both sides of the border both in the Dominican Republic and Haiti. We need the teams to come down, bring the materials and necessary building funds!
