What's in store for 2004? Only God knows for sure and we look forward to a very promising and productive year. Jorge Gamboa who is in charge of our video production and duplication has been approached by SKY ANGEL to see if we would be interested in airing our courses free of charge on their satellite network. Jorge was contacted by telephone and they were very interested in the sixteen plus countries these courses are currently being used in. They are in need of Christian Spanish programming. This would mean that Vida Internacional would be beamed down from satellites covering four continents and seen on one hundred and eighteen channels.

Hopefully I will be meeting early this year with the director in charge of their Spanish division. Please pray that this will take place in this great year of 2004. The Sky Angel opportunity means we will need to stay focused on re-mastering existing courses to a digital DVD format and shoot new courses also. So far we have four courses completed. We have received funding for five more courses and hope to have three more courses completed 'shortly' (no pun intended). We are excited about the lives that are being touched and the potential to reaching more people. Currently Vida is on the air in a couple of TV stations in Central America.

On my last trip to Guatemala the gentleman that picked me up at the airport owns and operates a cheese factory to provide for his family. He also is a Christian talk show host and is going to not only air our courses on his TV station but he will also duplicate the DVD'S and have them on the air in other small TV stations in Northern Guatemala. These courses have been set up in lending libraries and rented out for a nominal fee at Christian bookstores, they have been used by numerous churches helping them to have their own Bible schools, these courses have been used in prison ministry, existing Bible Institutes, in Church Plants, in Christian Schools and in cell groups. The fact is, there is such a great hunger for God's word among the Spanish speaking people that the use of these courses is unlimited in their application.

I want to thank everyone who has supported this ministry in 2003, helping us to make disciples throughout the Spanish speaking world. I want to especially thank those churches and individuals who have sponsored the production or reformatting of a ten lesson course. If you would like to help us produce more courses, it costs $1,000.00 for a 10 lesson course. We will acknowledge a contributing church, individual or in the memory of a loved one. Please be sure to note on you check if this is what you are contributing towards.
