Happy New Year! What a blessed last year we had! What blessed 2022? We are and were and will be blessed as our eyes are fixed on our King and His kingdom! We seek Him first and foremost and then we let the chips fall where they may. When I reflect on the goodness of God in this past year I thought of a precious manifestation of the grace of God in the life of an individual in our tiny community where I reside in Mexico.

Last February 14th I stopped in at the local hole in the wall, micro, miniature “Mini Super” and the store owner was bursting with joy and enthusiasm to tell me about her “experiencing God moment” that she just had and wanted to share it with me. Her eyes flashed like mirrors full of light and her smile beamed even through her Covid mask. She started off by saying, you know Lee I can’t just share these things with just anybody, only you and another mutual friend Rodriga because we’re all the same age and we understand and appreciate these kinds of special moments in life.

She then began to describe in detail her spiritual encounter (Remember, she’s a new Christian Catholic) “I had my Bible, the crucifix and the image of Guadalupe...” She paused and began to apologize for having Guadalupe as a part of the mix and went on to explain that it is because of our religious culture of being a Mexican. Then she said, “I began praying for my family, friends and neighbors who are struggling with sickness and relational issues and financial problems. Next, I kind of fell asleep praying and reading my Bible but I’m not sure if I had really fallen asleep or not. This is what I saw and heard. I saw my Lord Jesus kneeling and praying The Our Father Prayer, I saw Him and heard His voice praying!” She was overflowing with joy.

I Almost Missed
The Moment....

I had left my truck running in the street because I was in a hurry with a ton of things that I had to get done that day and I almost missed this precious moment by being in a hurry. I tried to break away on several occasions and each time I stepped away Mari-Chewy grabbed for my forearm. You see, I was busy doing all the urgent things on my Today's to Do List and I almost missed out on this special visitation and heavenly work. Mari-Chewy is a part of our monthly Saturday women's breakfast where mothers and grandmothers come together at our Community Center to enjoy food, fellowship and a practical Life Application Bible Study.

I want to express our deep appreciation for your investment in the lives of moms and grandmoms beyond our borders. I pray in the year to come we remember to look for and make time for these very precious moments.

Thank you!
