Amazing Encounter Past & Present

Some of the Art students that attended the Bible Study in the 70's

I was in the middle of greeting our regional pastors and leaders in the Puerto Vallarta and Bahia de Banderas during our annual Christmas Party for Pastors. At that moment, my phone began to ring with a video call. I was excited to see it was the MICA group monthly prayer meeting. This is an amazing group of artists who attended the Maryland Institute College of Art back in the early to mid-seventies; during the Hippies and Jesus Movement. God used me to lead a good number of students to the Lord both on the streets and in the classroom. I began a discipleship group which met in the Upper Room of the student union building in the remodeled old train station on Dolphin Street in Baltimore. The Holy Spirit said to me, "These students are sheep without a Shepherd", so I rose to the challenge. Even though my time there was brief, the Bible study grew and is still meeting today some 49 years later via internet.

I was filled with joy to receive the MICA prayer group video call and I introduced them to the arriving pastors. They were all greeting each other with broken English and lots of hand waving. I took the MICA group on a virtual tour of our facilities via smartphone camera and they said you're amazing! I quickly responded that God is Amazing and that I am a mess. LOL...

God wants to use willing vessels to reach the lost and disciple them. I count it a great honor and a privilege to partner with you to encourage Pastors and Christian Leaders to keep on keeping on in the faith. Our festive celebrations are something that brings great joy and bonds believer's hearts tighter together in Christian fellowship. We are impacting

Everlasting

Benfield Gallery is honored to host this reunion exhibition of seven friends who met at the Maryland Institute College of Art in the 1970s, forming bonds of friendship and art lasting over 40 years. This exhibition celebrates their continuing creativity, inspiration and expression.
