Lee and the boys arm wrestling! GRRRRRRRRRRR

The children are always thrilled when we give out clothes. Little 4 year old Valentina got a sporty pink dress. Her mother Martha said, "Valentina wears it all the time and never wants to take it off." Besides making friends and being with the other kids, she loves all the activities. Valentina loves washing her hands before the prayer over the meal. The little sinks and the paper towel dispensers were designed for little people's reach and she feels empowered that she can wash and dry her hands by herself!

This year we had another bumper crop of new babies. It is amazing how many of the mother's come and give a helping hand even up to the time they give birth! One mom commented that this was the best year ever; remembering all the handcrafts the children made and all the fun, good times that were had at the special events, the puppet shows and how the children loved the meals. She went on to comment that the older boys, like Jacobo and Olsvaldo would take great pleasure checking out the menu posted on the refrigerator, expressing their excitement over the anticipated hot lunches and deserts that they would be soon wolfing down.

The last day of the program all the boys wanted to arm wrestle me. At first they teamed up two and three at a time trying to pull and push my arm down. They kept lining up and coming back for more. Suddenly, they decided to try and take the old man down by mob force. We had a blast! It was a good year and we thank God for all of you who make it possible. Currently we are planning, cleaning and recruiting during the short summer break so that next year by God's Grace, it will be even better. LSMI Community center's mission is FEEDING CHILDREN BODY, SOUL AND SPIRIT! We covet your prayers and appreciate your support..
