It seems like a life time ago. In 1985 Carol and I, with babes-in-arms, packed up our home in Pensacola and moved to Americus, Georgia. I served there as the founding pastor of Cornerstone Church. Among the youth, there was a teenaged boy named Wade TenBensel who had been given a Spanish Bible and felt called to be a missionary. While I preached in English he would follow my messages in his Spanish Bible. Now a mature middle aged man, Wade has served on the field in both Mexico and Peru. It was a blessing to see him and his young family serving on this mission trip led by Chuck and Kay Sherwood. The group ranged in ages from 5 to 75 years old and also included Mark Collier, Jim Doughty, Aimee Miller and the Pilcher family.

We divided the group into two teams. One group did construction in 'Cardboard Landia' and the other served in both our children's programs at 'Cardboard Landia' and Mezcales. We also ministered at some of our Vida Churches and we did an outreach at our mission in Tebelchia directed toward children and their moms. There were approximately 200 in attendance and many of the kids and moms along with some dads and teenagers gave their hearts to the LORD. Our pastor serving at this mission reported that the congregation tarried till one in the morning asking questions.

I want to thank each and everyone of you who pray and support this ministry. Just like our Cornerstone Church family you also are a BLAST from the PAST which is IMPACTING FUTURE GENERATIONS!
