You cannot imagine how many opportunities and in how many ways we were able to minister in the 20 days I was in India. We ministered in churches, thru pastoral home visits to Christians & non-Christians and in house church meetings. I spoke at a wedding banquet with over 600 guests, and at numerous Children’s Outreach events held in all kinds of locations. We ministered to gatherings of children on sidewalks, under trees, in homes and in a vacant public school building. One time we were in front of a Hindu temple. When the thundering black clouds were casting down lightning bolts and drenching us with buckets of water, we ran up the steps inside the Hindu temple and there I finished Jesus’ parable; ‘when the rains come down and the floods came up!’

Vinod asked me, as he was pulling out his cell phone, “are you sure you want to minister in India?” He then showed me a video of a pastor’s decapitated corpse. Vinod said, “This just happened and he was my friend. We were classmates in same Bible School together.” Christian persecution in India is a reality. It is against the law to convert anyone from the religion they were born into. India’s population is 1.3 billion people and is 80% Hindu, 14% Muslim and only 2% Christian. Why in the world did I go to India? Because... God spoke to me and said we would have fruit in that region of the world, so I went. Please pray with me to know God’s heart for ministering to these precious people. We can’t do it without your prayers and financial participation.

MY HOUSE shall be called...

Pray with me. I have been asked by new believers in a small farming village which is located 2 hours north of Nagpur to help them build a House of Prayer. They tell me they are being persecuted by their Hindu neighbors when they gather in open places to conduct prayer services. I saw their property where they desire to build a House of Prayer which will be open 24 hours a day. It will be approximately 14'x34'.

I would like to help them with $10 K towards the cost to have a place to worship. Will you pray for God's House?
