The 'Father Factor' Orphan or Adopted?

Cardboard Landia: Lee is the founding pastor.

I was teaching on the 'Father Factor' in Cardboard Landia. Jesus taught us to pray "Our Father which are in Heaven", but so many people are spiritually wounded by their earthly fathers and are afflicted with an orphan spirit mentality. They feel rejected, detached, unloved and undervalued. They wrestle with a poor self-image and feel abandoned. They carry a chip on their shoulder, missing out on the fact that those who are in Christ Jesus have been spiritually adopted into the Heavenly Father's family. There, they are unconditionally loved and receive full rights as a member of the household of faith. This message resonated with several of the congregants and tears flowed as hearts were healed. One young man thanked me for sharing these truths which helped to set him free as he has wrestled with anger, alcohol and addictions; trying to medicate and dull his pain.

There are those who bask in the Heavenly Father's love and their love for Him becomes infectious. Take for example little Sophia who is only 8 years old yet she hungers for God. She came to church on her own; no parent to accompanied her. On Sunday mornings, she was the first one at the church waiting an hour outside by herself for those who would come and unlock the door and let her in. She quickly wanted to participate in the church and joined the worship dance team. She was so in love with worshiping in the Father's House that she began to bring her friends and family members who also came early and waited with her for the church to open. She has become quite the little evangelist loving her God and enjoying being part of his family.

We want to thank all of you who are sowing your prayers and treasure into this ministry. You join your hearts with ours as we reach out together planting churches and building community centers so others like Sophia

Sophia is center stage on the dance team.
