Victor Penagos, the president of our local ministerial alliance of pastors, made a statement concerning the local pastors who make up the local Pastor's association that really gripped my heart. His haunting words permeated my soul and opened the eyes of my understanding. He said that these pastors are needy and impoverished. There is a great need for them to be spiritually built up and encouraged. These pastors are among 'the poor in spirit' whose hunger Jesus promised would be satisfied.

We had a representation of pastors and leaders from across the Mexican republic in our community center for a marriage retreat. We averaged 100 in attendance during the three-day event. Our theme this year was 'God's purpose for the family'. The theme was relevant to their personal struggles and the needs of their congregants. The family is under siege during these trying times. The pastors were like dry sponges soaking up the teachings of our conference speakers.

Yours truly taught on husbands and wives becoming 'One Flesh' and 'Caring Confrontation'. It was a blast when I had couples in competition with each other trying to burst a balloon between their bodies as they forcefully and aggressively embraced one another. This activity was an intro into my message on becoming 'One Flesh'. To introduce 'Caring Confrontation' I spontaneously recruited and briefed a couple and asked them to dramatize a fight between a couple, and I supplied them with a few props. I gave them a rose, a shawl and broad rim straw dunce hat. The couple gave it their best and was a smash hit. Apparently they were well versed on the subject. They weren't just acting but acting out. LOL!

I want to give a big shout out to my life long dear friends Kevin McNulty and Tino Gutierrez who ministered life giving words of encouragement to individuals and couples that touched them deeply.

I also want to thank all of you for your prayers and support that make it possible to give Seed to the Sowers and Satisfy the Hungry.
