The children were enthralled in the drama as the puppeteers did their magic, capturing their vivid imaginations. It was a beautiful story of boy meets girl, girl breaks heart, boy encounters Christ, God gives him a new heart... boy witnesses to girl, girl gets a transformed heart... Boy and girl are filled with joy as they love and serve God. We just happened to have a box of children's tracts entitled, "Carlos gets a new heart". It was a perfect complement to reinforce the muppet's message. Don't you love it when things come together?

The event was in celebration of the Day of the Child, and celebrate we did! It was a fiesta of food, fun, & gifts. They ate hamburgers and hotdogs, special cake and ice cream and played games. Afterward we loaded them down with bags put together especially for them of clothing, a toy and rice and beans to take home for their family. They lingered at the door after the prayer, not wanting to leave.

When the party was over, I assessed that we needed to take the left-overs and throw a party in Card-board-landia. It was a spontaneous decision and our team said, "yeah, let's do it", so we packed up the decorations, 80 small gift bags, gently used clothing, along with hamburgers and hotdogs. An hour later the church was packed out with kids being blessed with a fiesta of faith, hope and love!! Please pray with us as we are considering taking our program to the impoverished children of Card-board-landia next September and beginning the process of building bridges of love over which we can share the Kingdom News with these marginal families. September is coming soon, so please pray how you can help with the things needed to make this possible.

Together we make a difference!
