Angel and Ramon

“Father to the fatherless, defender of widows - this is God, whose dwelling is holy.” Ps 68:5. In our work here in Mezcales, I find myself fathering a community... Each child has their individual struggles, dealing with all kinds of stuff. We try to create an atmosphere of love and respect, teaching God’s Word which spiritually transforms little lives and heals little hearts.

As I passed by the 7 year old’s table, Ramon was crying out to me, “Maestro, Angel took my seat”. Two others chimed in confirming Angel’s offense. I have seen a transformation in the life of little Ramon. When he first began attending 3 years ago he always had a scowl on his face and never smiled. He was depressed and angry. Now God has healed his little heart and Ramon has a sweet smile and is engaged and responsive. Angel is a little handful. He’s been raised fatherless.

I took Angel aside for a little heart to heart talk about not taking what is someone else’s. I asked him to get another seat and bring it to the table. He knows it is his responsibility to do so upon entering the Children’s Center. Tears gushed out of Angel’s eyes and he cried and cried. I asked Angel to look me in the eyes. I said, “Angel we love you, do you feel that you are loved when you are here?” Angel responded by nodding his head yes, he felt loved. I told him, “Let’s go and get your chair.” At that moment, little Samuel brought over a chair and tenderly said to Angel, “here’s your chair..” I said to Angel, “see how much you are loved?” YOU ARE LOVED! Together we are making a difference.

Together we are Life Savers,
