There is a stark contrast between children raised in Voodoo and those children who are growing in faith in Jesus! I was ministering to the children in Villa de Algodon. These children are extremely poor undocumented Haitians living in the Dominican Republic. They are the children of migratory workers. I love to see them are falling in love Jesus and worshipping Him with all their hearts. I was telling them the story of how a boy named David was full of faith in God and slayed an evil giant named Goliath. Then, I told them the story of Jesus who conquered even bigger and meaner giants named Sin and Death. Jesus the Giant Slayer won the victory through demonstrating His great love on the cross.

We live in a world full of such beauty and grandeur. Creation reflects the glory of God. Mankind is the pinnacle of His handy work reflecting the image of the Almighty himself. The irony is that at the same time, we live in a fallen sin sick world full of darkness where evil lurks in the shadows. The Island of Hispaniola is a microcosm of this contrast and is not exempt from this enigma of the "beauty and the beast". I see and know more than I care to. The horrors of sin are shocking and at times it rocks me to the core. I often question what can be done; then I reflect on what we are doing, which is FEEDING CHILDREN BODY, SOUL & SPIRIT. The long term effects of discipling children, teaching them and developing them to lead others to love and serve the LORD is the only answer to this problem of sin in the world. Yes, the children are being trained to lead. We have interactive participatory programs that develop leaders.

We are currently discipling 500+ children in 5 locations on the Island. Please pray about partnering with us so that we can lift Jesus up and allow these little children to come to Him.

Together we are Vida Internacional,

PRAISE and PRAY!

1. We need to raise $1,500 a month to consistently feed the 500+ children attending our 5 locations on the Island of Hispanola.
2. Keep Pastor Lee in your prayers as he travels between our established churches and centers to encourage and equip those pastors and leaders to continue their ministry of love to their communities. Pray for his health and safety.

We can't do it without your prayers. They DO make a difference!
