Rising To The Challenge

Helping hungry families in the Dominican Republic

Rising to the occasion in the heat of the Covid-19 battle, our Vida Churches, pastors and leaders launched out into the unknown and brought food, aid and comfort along with the “Good News” to their communities. Our Haiti mission under the care of Pastor Isaac Royer in the border town of Ansi-A-Piter is the hardest hit among our congregations. This mission has over 50 adult members and 150 children who live in extreme poverty and misery. The situation in Haiti is pitiful, our Hattian family of believers are wasting away without help from their government and commerce is locked down including their border into the Dominican Republic. The need is great and we want to send more aid to our mission in Haiti. In the Dominican Republic Pastor Pedro has given out live chickens, beans and rice to help people in the community.

Things in Mexico have not been easy, one of our mothers from Mezcales who’s name is Letty shared; “It’s a very difficult time for many and for me especially because my husband and I both lost our jobs and we had to move to another state & move in with family since we could not pay rent. We are just trying to survive. We have not had anything to eat and my children have been suffering from hunger. It has been sad to leave my home just to try to make ends meet.”

I could not be more pleased with the labors of our Mexican team. Our lead Pastor Juan Barrera raised up a coalition of various churches in the Puerto Vallarta area and worked arm and arm to disperse over 750 boxes of food staples. Hundreds of packages beans and rice and boxes of aid were dispersed though our Mezcales Children Center and Cardboard Landia Center. All of our pastors have reached out to many in the congregations and beyond into their communities. Our Church and Community Center in Mezcales was even briefly converted into a soup kitchen providing hot take-out meals for our community. We were blessed to see that they all turned out to take advantage of free hot meals in their time of need. Vida leaders did much from soliciting food donations from merchants to bundling the food aid boxes and then taking the goods to those most in need. Our pastors and leaders gave out of their own means to the cause to help their neighbors in need.

This is what brings joy to my soul to see them give sacrificially like their Lord and Savior to help others for the greater good and advance the cause of Christ. Thank you all for your prayers and support. You help make all this possible.
