Dear Friends,

Recently a friend wrote us saying: "We have read your newsletter prayerfully, wondering what else could possibly happen." We know that many of you have wondered the same thing and we are so very grateful for your faithful, fervent prayers on our behalf.

It all started on January 6th, with a pinched nerve in the neck which led to severe muscle spasms. Bedridden, Lee called for a Doctor, who recommended a muscle relaxer, but declined to administer it. In Mexico, you can buy any drug without a prescription, so Carol went to the pharmacy, bought the medication and a friend, Salvador administered the injection.

Soon after the shot, Lee had a reaction. He collapsed on the bed with an odd groan and began to twitch all over. His eyes were rolling around, his mouth was contorted. Carol cried out, almost as an involuntary reaction, "JESUS!!!". Lee became dead still, his eyes open and staring, his jaw slack. He did not appear to be breathing and she could not get a pulse. As Carol was praying under her breath and wondering what to do, Salvador called for cold towels and began to slap Lee on the face. Not knowing what else to do, believing that Lee had died, Carol began to slap him on the face, calling "Lee, come back!!!". Finally, Lee said with a weak voice, "Don't worry I'm fine." He went on to describe a bright light and the deepest peace he had ever felt. We both think he was entering into heaven. Only the Lord knows for sure. There was no "911", no

SHORT STUFF

emergency care, paramedics and ambulances, but there is Jesus, and he came through.

PRAISE REPORTS

Carolyn Lyons, our teacher, has arrived. She is a missionary with "Mission Nannies". We are blessed to have her for a six month commitment. (Pray that she stays longer).

We have found a way to legally bring in the equipment duty free. It should be here around the middle of March. Keep it in prayer.

We could be out of it!! The racketeer lawyer had contacted our lawyer and said that he wants to settle with us. He said it isn't worth his time. If this is true, once he signs the legal documents, he can never lay claim to this property again. Continue to pray, he is very deceitful.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Pray for our health and safety, especially for Lee.

Pray that the Lambs, Roberts, and Stevensons raise their support ASAP.

Pray for financial partners. We will soon be ready and need funding for production and distribution.

Pray that our son's hospital bill will be paid. The insurance company is in serious trouble and not paying claims. Pray that they pay our claim.

Thank you from the depths of our hearts for your prayers and financial support to this faith ministry. You make it possible to be here!

In His Service,

Lee, Carol
