March 1995

Dear Friends and Co-laborers,

My heart rose to my throat at the moment of impact as the jet smacked down on the runway. It was not because of the unusually rough landing, but the realization that I was now behind the Sugar Cane Curtain where the hammer and sickle still prevail, and Fidel Castro rules the land with his iron clad grip. Yes, you guessed it Cuba!!!

We stepped down from the plane and proceeded through immigration. I was told to get into the short line which said "Diplomats". The gentleman in front of me was an official from Communist China. When it was my turn, I stepped up to the booth and laid down my U.S. passport. There was an immediate response by the immigration officer who could not control his heavy breathing. He began to stare intensely at me and got closer to the glass. So did I. Eyeball to eyeball, still breathing rapidly, he got even closer. Finally, I put my head underneath the glass and looked into his eyes as if to say, "No, I am not a spy nor do I have a guilty conscience. He let me through.

I had to go through customs next. They told me I could not bring all those videos into their country (40 in all). I looked at the man calmly and asked, "Do we have a problem?" He said no, and let me through. P.T.L.!! I met a pastor who traveled 12 hours by bus to get leadership training materials for his 10 mission churches in the mountains of Cuba. He asked the official head of his denomination in charge of literature (a devout communist) for these materials, and was denied. It was another of those divine appointments! We put into his hands 20 hours of video training materials and manuals. He was grateful, and his trip was not in vain. Those of you who support this ministry made this possible! God moved in an incredible way. I experienced a powerful anointing. We saw many conversions, deliverances, people baptized in the Spirit, and people experiencing a supernatural touch from God.

On our return flight to Houston, a thick fog set in and our 737 began to touch down 100 ft to the right of the runway. The pilot jerked the plane up, dipping the wings to the left and right. We almost crashed. The second try, he overshot the runway, The stewardess' panicked when we landed and were the first ones off the plane. When we ask for traveling mercies, we mean it! Thank you for your prayers.

PRAYER REQUESTS

1. Pray for future mission trips to Cuba. Lord permitting, I will return in April.
2. Pray that God will open doors so that we can network with others who share like vision.
3. Pray for Lee's safety as he travels
4. Pray for Vida's new project, "Launch a Missile".

In His Service,
