It was impressive to see Kachiquel Indians bringing their first fruits and placing them on the altar. They are believing the Word of God as found in Deuteronomy 26:1-15 which says that if they honor God with the first of the harvest, the rest will be blessed. In the town of Santa Maria de Jesus, in the province of Sacatepequez is an Assembly of God church by the name of "Ebenezer". The Kachinquel Pastor, Umberto Coyote says that most of his congregation grows corn and other crops on their plots of land. Some raise livestock and bring the first born of their flocks and herds. The church is growing. The congregation grinds the corn into meal and the food is used for evangelism through church meals and feeding those in need.

In this little town, drugs, alcohol and gangs run rampant. The people say that these destructive forces are increasingly getting worse. You can see men chugging long neck bottles of beer, trying to get drunk. Men and women lie unconscious on sidewalks and on the side of the road. Souls are lost. Lives are wasted. What is the answer? We know that the answer lies in the life giving Word of God.

Pastor Umberto wants to reach his people. He wants to grow the church. The only way that this will happen is if more laborers are raised up to work in the harvest of Kachinquel converts. The church is currently constructing classrooms where they will be using Vida Internacional (our Bible School) in their church. After I ministered that night, we prayed for the leaders and workers of the church. The lady in charge of ministering to the children wept profusely, asking God that she would be equipped to reach the children. Let's pray that they will finish their construction and get set up soon in developing their members into ministers.

You can help by sponsoring the planting of a Bible School. With a $1,000 donation we will plant a Bible School. Vida Internacional's "Bible School in a Box" consists of a 2 year life changing curriculum in a VCD format, with manuals on disc, administrative forms on Disc and a VCD player. If God is speaking to you about this, you can send a check today, and ear mark your gift "Bible School in a Box."

We love and appreciate all of you who make this ministry possible through your prayers and contributions.
