Luke 4:18: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor..." I was asked to preach for an hour and a half at a two day open air revival meeting that began at 7:00am and lasted till 10:00pm at night. The meeting was in the middle of literally thousands of squatters, living on land that does not belong to them. Their makeshift homes are made out of cardboard and sheets of black plastic. The people themselves say that they live in "Cardboard Landia". These needy people are living on the fringes of society, barely eeking out a living. Most are without the essentials of water, sewer or electric. I came down with a bad cold the day before, I was coughing, lost my breath and didn't have much voice. I hoped that I could preach for at least ten minutes before turning over the microphone, but God apparently had other ideas.

HE ANOINTED ME TO PREACH THE GOSPEL TO THE POOR! I went the full hour and a half, full bore, under a strong anointing. We had several decisions for Christ and then one person after another came forward asking for prayer, "Pastor pray for me". Nikko, a fifty-three year old man, and the son of a preacher, was suffering with a severe headache which caused him to lose sleep for the four nights leading up to the revival. Together he and his friend Rigo came forward to pray the sinner's prayer and invite Christ into their hearts. Rigo shouted out at the top of his lungs for God to save him and Niko prayed earnestly pledging his heart and surrendering his life to Christ. Niko said as he prayed Christ came in and the pain and sickness went out. "God healed me, PTL!" I can't imagine how many years and tears Niko's father has spent praying for his son. Jesus came to seek and to save that which was lost.

Say a Prayer!

1. We want to produce one new course a month. It is being broadcast in 5 cities. We need $1,200 for video production and $400 for the manual.
2. Pray for Pastor Javier Rueda and his church in Ixtapa that they can complete their church building.
3. Pray that the Spanish Bible courses we have posted on I-Tunes get good exposure.
4. Pray for the needy children and their families that we are ministering to here in Mezcales.
5. Pray for the Lord's protection, provision and his favor.

Jamil with his kids (Thanks for your service Jamil!!!)
