The children's eyes lit up when we served them cake and juice. They broke piñatas, many watched a movie projected on a bed sheet while the high energy kids played games in the street. We gave them bags of candy and an inflated ball as a gift. Mexicans love to celebrate! They are a colorful festive people. They love to smile, they love to laugh and they love special occasions. Children's Day "El Día del Niño" April 30th is a big deal followed by another beloved special day celebration, Mother's Day.

We threw the big party on May 2nd and well over 100 kids showed up. The children had a blast and were blessed. I shared with them that God loves them, made them, and that they are very special to Him. I also prayed a blessing over them. Behind the scenes laboring with a noisy air compressor, Stephanie and her three children inflated 140 plastic balls. You can still see those balls bouncing all over the community.

A few days after the event a father thanked me and said his children came home so happy and full of joy. He said THANK YOU for all that you are doing. The truth is, it's not me, it's all of us together! I love it... you at home, foreigners living abroad and Mexicans all working together! We are so grateful to all of our supporters and volunteers that made this grand day possible. Special Day Celebrations are a great way "to demonstrate the love of God in a tangible way so that people can respond to Him."
