Rice, beans, sugar and cooking oil were bagged up for distribution. We purchased aid for 100 families and piled it next to the pulpit. After worshipping with the wind whipping up dirt and dust, I open the Bible to John chapter 6 and began to declare how the multitudes flocked to Jesus for food and fled when he revealed his true identity and mission. "God knows that you have legitimate needs. You need food, water & shelter; but your greatest need is SPIRITUAL!". Captivated by the expressions on the faces while snapping photos from behind the makeshift & tattered tent top church, Rafael later commented to me; "You could see a full range of emotions on the people's faces; joy, anguish, pain and conviction." He also said that in the eight months he had been living in "Cardboard Landia" he had never seen so many people come forward for salvation. JESUS is the BREAD of LIFE. I want to thank Nick Danos and all those who made this possible through their prayers and gifts.

This month, our theme was Mark 10:14. The children memorized the verse, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these." We had our annual big bash celebrating the International Day of the Child with a huge "tres leche" chocolate cake adorned with a dark chocolate cross and inscribed "The kingdom is yours". The kids feasted on hamburgers and fries, cookies and cream ice cream, recited their bible verse, played games, won prizes and went home with a bag of clothing and a few small gifts. I want to thank all of you who combed through yard sales and closets, sent children's clothes or gave funds to purchase them. We couldn't do it without you.
