There was excitement in the air as JOY covered their little faces. Their eyes lit up like sparklers and happiness flowed. They could hardly contain themselves when we celebrated the Day of the Child. There was a jubilant atmosphere as we worshiped our King. I briefly shared a word or two affirming Jesus' love for them. We prayed a blessing over the children and thanked Him for the celebration and food. It blessed all of us adults who participated and served in this grand festive event. The games were a blast to watch as little mouths gapped at humongous marshmallows dangling from strings. In the sack races kids were hopping high and fast trying to win the prize. They swayed and stepped to the tunes of Musical chairs and they carefully flinched their faces as they maneuvered cookies from their foreheads down to their mouths without any help from their hands.

There was an air of gratitude and thankfulness through out the event but especially as the kids were laden with gift bags containing a colorfully wrapped gift, a Toy Story cellophane bag packed full of treats, several articles of lightly used clothing, and a bag of rice and beans. Their sweet little voices one after another softly said "Gracias Señor Lee" but really these thank you's are for each of you who made this possible. Thank you for allowing Carol and I to be ambassadors of God's love extended to these little ones. One last gesture of appreciation that really blessed my soul happened when I was ordering the pizzas from Domino's for this Day of the Child Celebration. The young man taking my order reached out and took my hand in both of his hands, looked me square in the eyes and said with heart felt sincerity "I WANT TO THANK YOU FOR HELPNG THE CHILDREN OF MEXICO." Once again THANK YOU... for giving to the Lord and blessing these dear ones. Together we are making a difference.

Together we are Life Savers, Ju & Carol
