SHORT STUFF

November 1990

Dear Friends,

What's black and white and stinks all over? The evening before the dedication of our facilities we had a small intruder that managed to raise quite a stink around here. In anticipation of our special day, we had prepared the grounds all week long. We were looking forward to this important event. Our uninvited guest, Mr. Skunk, sprayed the steps, the patio, the garden, our dogs, and me (I was trying to pull my dogs away from him.)

I did not know what we were going to do. The odor hung on the air everywhere. That night, we had a powerful thunderstorm that freshened up everything except the dogs who were a roving reminder of what's black and white and stinks all over.

WHAT A DAY!

We were honored to have three very distinguished couples from the United States to attend the dedication service on October 6th. Bob and Beth Bishop, the General Director of GME (my boss), Jack and Mary Cox, my pastor from my home church, and last but not least, Marvin and Claire Short, my mom and dad, were here.

The service was held on our terrace patio that overlooks lush subtropical terrain, the sparkling lake Chapala, and the surrounding tall green, blue, and grey mountains which fade into the horizon. The sky was a vivid blue.

SKUNKED ? NO WAY !

Pastor Jonas Villalobo's worship team began the service and the presence of God descended upon us. Pastor Francisco Rodriguez imparted the word which was followed by a time in which our guests, both Mexican pastors, and the visitors from the States prayed and shared words of encouragement. What a day!

IT'S TIME

We feel that mobilizing believers to do "short" term mission outreach will kindle flames of evangelism in your church. If your church group has been thinking about ministering in Mexico this summer with us, it's time to plan your stay. Don't put it off another year. You can call us at our home now (PTL). The number is 011-52-376-30-7-66. It's time.

PRAYER REQUESTS

1. Please continue to pray that the building goes on here without injury or mishap. Pray that all the workmen remain safe and in good health and that no bad thing would pass through our gates.
2. Pray for safety on the roads and safety at home for the family.
3. Pray that God continues to loose the funds necessary to complete the construction and purchase the equipment.

We are thankful to God for giving us people like you all that pray for us and support us in this ministry.

In His Service,

*Lee, Carol,
Josh, Amy, Sarah*
