It was two and a half years ago when I stepped into the television studio of Channel 31 and gave them our teaching video from our Video Bible School. These teaching tapes have been one of their highest viewed programs. They broadcast our material on Tuesdays and Saturday. Channel 31 covers almost the entire country.

The island of Chira is home to some 3,500 inhabitants, mostly fisherman along with a handful of ranchers and farmers. These descendants of the Chira Indians tribe have four evangelical churches among them is the Iglesia Fuente de Vida (Fountain of Life Church), Pastor Pedro Medina has graduated 21 students that have completed extensive studies with our Bible school, Vida International. These on fire disciples are evangelizing and establishing missions in the center of the island. They are also, manning their fishing boats and are launching out to evangelize on the coast of the mainland. There is a lot to be thankful for as we
