

Pray for us, that the Word of the Lord
may have free course in Mexico.

OCTOBER 1988

Dear Friends,

We were happy to have my parents down; the children were especially grateful to be with their grandparents. We had many adventures during their stay. My mother was trying to order a cut of meat from the butcher, who speaks broken English. Pointing to her eye, she said, "An eye roast please." With a puzzled look, he replied, "You want the eyes of the cow?"

4 Wheeling

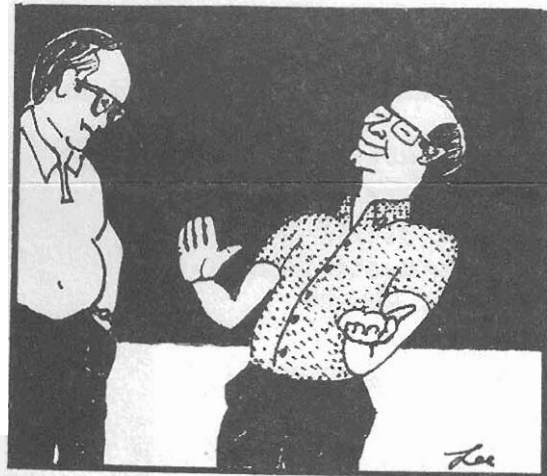

The "high" spots of their week stay were the two occasions we went up into the mountain villages to minister with a fellow missionary, Leland Hodges. We went bouncing and climbing up the mountainside in his 4-wheel drive vehicle. On the top of the mountain is a small village of about four hundred very poor people. They live in small huts, some with dirt floors. I saw both my parents blessed and moved beyond words as they shared and prayed for the needs of these people.

He kissed me

The other village we visited was a very small fishing village. At the end of the service we prayed for the people. A drunk man kissed my hand while I was praying for him. (Homage, that is usually received by a Catholic priest). He caught me off guard, and I didn't know what to do. I continued to pray and bind the spirits, and he kissed me again, so I kissed him back and said, in Spanish, "Now we're even."
