You helped these children with their school uniforms so they can go to school.

We are part of a developing rural community that is morphing into a small city. In our current condition raw sewer flows thru the muddy streets and high weeds. It is a breeding ground for mosquitoes and sickness. Meanwhile, there is development bursting out in every direction. Three miles down the road in a densely populated area a brand new Wal-Mart has just popped up. Over the next five years we will be surrounded by hundreds maybe even thousands of new neighbors.

People move here from all over Mexico looking for employment. This uproots them from their extended families. Now they are building community with new friendships and a new life. Neighborhood ladies working in the kitchen of the Ministry Base have mouth watering conversations about their favorite regional dishes. Carol and I walk through the community hand in hand visiting our neighbors. When they share with us their hurts and their hardships we join hands and hearts and lift their burdens to God.

Currently our Sunday morning Hour of Joy draws about 30 kids They have a blast as they are growing in God. One Sunday morning five adults prayed to receive Christ into their lives. During the week forty children get help with their homework and receive hot meals. It has blessed us to see the Lord move in the hearts of the little ones and in the big ones too. Volunteer moms, and a dad, some singles and a dear Canadian couple are making a difference.

The children express their gratitude in many kind gestures. One morning Carol came out of the kitchen and three little girls without saying a word, one at a time wrapped their arms around Carol's waist giving her a big hug and returned to their seats. They bring us thoughtful little gifts, a piece of fruit, a little trinket sized toy and they even pick a wild flower or two.

We have been called to pray against wickedness in our community, city and the country in which we serve. The evil one has been very active here. He comes to kill, steal and destroy, but Jesus comes to bring LIFE; Victorious, Abundant and Prevailing Life!

Together we make a difference.

Together We are Life Savers,

Ju & Carol
