Joining hearts and hands to pray for Mexico

I could hear the sobbing as we wept and prayed. We prayed for Mexico. We prayed for the government. We prayed for families, for those who were suffering, and for those in need. We confessed our sin before God, and asked for God's mercy and blessing on Mexico. We stood, held hands, and lifted our voices to the Lord. "Before we can experience revival there must be a breaking ;," the event leader David Alfano declared, "and following this trial will come a blessing. This breaking has a purpose, to bring us to our knees."

Lee and I were privileged to be a part of "We pray for Mexico" in Puerto Vallarta as members of the Pastor's association of Vallarta. Our hearts have been broken by the violence and terror, and we know that without God's help, this beautiful country will be torn apart. It is in the tough times that the church of Jesus Christ shines the brightest. We are refined and strengthened by our trials. Pray with us for Mexico.

Vida Internacional, our Spanish Bible Institute has launched it's online video study program at <http://www.Vidalnt.org>. Anyone can log on and download the videos and manuals, any hour of the day or night. There they can see and hear teaching in their own language and culture, and prepare themselves for ministry. When I shared the news with Sandra, a Pastor's wife in our region, she could hardly contain herself. She told me that since she was a young girl, she had wanted to study but her parents did not want her to go away from home. Once she married with the responsibilities of a wife and mother, she thought she would never have the privilege.

Sandra had tears in her eyes as she asked me if she could register and begin to study. She expressed her excitement that she could work the study into
