The rain came pouring down from a tropical typhoon in our region. Churches in our area were calling off services, but not in Cardboard-Landia. They came in the rain! They walked in the mud down flooded streets. They love the Lord and they love their church. They expressed to me their love for one another and the joy they feel and the unity they experience. This sounds too good to be true, but it is. Yes, they have gone through hard times as a congregation. Yes, they did endure a church split two years earlier, but their eyes are not focused on hurts and disappointments but rather focused on the author and finisher of their faith. They come to celebrate the Lord in dance and praise and in the proclamation of His Word. It brings me so much joy to minister to them. They are moved and respond to the Word of God. Jesus preached the Good News to the poor and He admonished His followers to do the same. The Apostles told Paul to remember the poor.

God is alive and is moving in the hearts of His children. Gael, the little boy on the dance team was treated in a cruel manner by his parents and discouraged to NOT attend church. He would get down on his knees and pray for his parents to be saved and to someday attend church with him. Now, his mother is attending services regularly. PTL!

This is how God touches hearts. This child has always wanted the things of God; he says that one day he wants to be a Pastor. He wants to be a good Christian. Today he dances like King David did in the Old Testament times. He dances for the Lord, and now his mother accepted Christ and her life is being transformed for the Glory of God. God is good at all times.

We had a wonderful day with a great turnout even though the road was flooded full of mud and rain. The people walk to church and experience God's presence as we worship Him!
