The Cuban Government denied permission for the annual youth camp meeting of the Methodist Church in Cuba to meet in one central location. In response, the church leaders divided the conference into three regions; Western, Central and Eastern. But in spite of all the opposition, God was there!

I arrived just in time for lunch. Remind me to be late next time. We were served white rice & spaghetti. It doesn't sound bad, but it was. The rice was fine, but the spaghetti was fermenting and it bubbled in my mouth. I mixed it with my rice and prayed as I swallowed. I thank God that I did not get sick on this occasion.

I ministered on having a vision for your ministry and the young people responded in a beautiful way as the Holy Spirit fell.

Lee preaching with passion

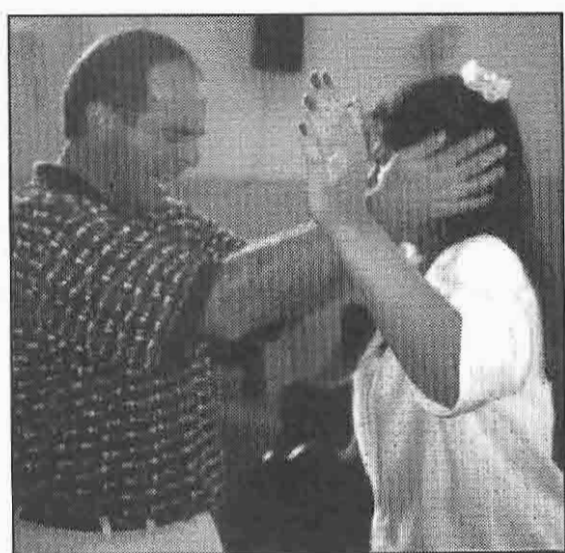

Cuban youth choir on fire!!!

One young lady, kneeling at the altar was having a vision of a royal crown and jewels being placed upon her. She prayed and asked the Lord, what does this mean? At that moment, as I passed by and laid my hand on her head, I spoke over her that she was receiving the riches of the Holy Spirit. SHE WAS THRILLED THAT GOD ANSWERED HER!!!

Another young man told me that he has always dreamed of some day going to a rural part of Cuba and pioneering a small country church. He said that at the instant I laid my hand upon his chest he had a vision of going out to pioneer a work in the country, but this time the church was a big one!

Cuban youth, earnest to receive a touch from God!

CUBAN GOVERNMENT BUSTS UP ANNUAL YOUTH CAMP

Last year approximately 3,000 spirit filled Methodist youth gathered. This year Cuban officials tightened down the screws on religious freedoms...

BUT GOD!!!
