Foreboding weather does not deter the faithful who gather in plazas throughout the republic. They shout out at the stroke of midnight “Viva Mexico”! September 16th is Mexican Independence Day. Their celebration commences with the re-enactment of the historic cry for freedom from Spanish tyranny which first blasted from the lips of Father Miguel Hidalgo as he pounded his pulpit.

Children and mothers walked down the muddy streets, many carrying their shoes in hand, some arriving drenched for their first day back. Everyone’s eyes lit up as they got within sight of the Community Center and saw the huge Mexican Flag flying from the rooftop. When we raised the flag, one little girl gripped by emotion shouted out “Bravo!”

We came together to celebrate their liberty with banners and balloons, hot lentil soup, games and a Mexican flag cake. The children volunteered to tell their national story for independence while coloring a picture of their flag. We celebrate God and Country, knowing that one day, Jesus Christ will be king over all the earth. Together with your help, we are proclaiming the Good News of freedom; that true liberty is fully realized in Christ alone. Together we are touching young hearts.
