No one in their family could read or write. Jose 8, Luis 10 and Perla 13 were the first in line waiting for the doors to open at our Vida Center so that they could attend our tutoring classes. Today, all 3 are progressing beautifully in reading, writing and arithmetic! Together WE are giving disadvantaged children a 2nd chance. The children on the Island of Hispanola are facing hunger and hardship, ignorance, poverty, political turmoil and civil unrest that plagues their Island. Relations between Haiti and the Dominican Republic are very tense. The little children do not understand the harsh political realities that divide their nations. God's word says, "He will not falter or be discouraged till He establishes justice on earth. In His teaching the islands will put their hope." Isaiah 42:4

God calls us to bear His light in the darkness and teach His truth so that these children will have a chance. We are strategically located 30 minutes from the southern border and are presently developing leadership teams in both countries to make disciples and claim the island for Christ. The arms of Jesus span these two needy nations and Christ's words ring true as he said, "suffer the children to come to me for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Walking down a dirt road in the early morning light 8 year old Wigman Pierre, a Haitian, was running an errand for her parents. She was worried that her parents would beat her if she did not return quickly. Pastor Henry spoke to her and invited her to attend Sunday school. He shared with her God's wonderful plan and how Jesus loves children. He told her to behave and be a good girl. She asked; if I trust in Jesus will my parents forgive me? Henry said yes, they will. Pastor Henry went with Wigman to her wooden shack home and explained to her parents the decision that their daughter made to trust in Jesus Christ. Her parents wept. She is now a part of the ministry and does not miss a single day. Since her conversion she no longer tells lies to her parents nor anyone else. Together we are making a difference in children's lives.

Together we are Life Savers,
