Fishing
For people

I was moved by the Spirit to invite fishermen and the various clusters of people hanging out on the shore to our mission in their border town of Anse-a'-Pitre, Haiti. The fishermen were mending their nets after fishing. We were casting our nets fishing for people; some were interested and some were not. There was a large group sitting on a low lying tree limb that were very interested in everything I had to say. I began to passionately preach 'The Good News' of the Father's Love that was lavished upon them, poured out through Jesus Christ. I spoke of his regal divinity, his humility, his earthly mission and his love that dripped down Calvary's cross! They hung on every word and even wanted me to repeat certain things so they could clearly understand what I was saying, I spoke in Spanish as it was translated into Creole. They bowed their heads and lifted their hearts praying for salvation.

Next I jumped into a game of street soccer. The kids were delighted and we formed teams. My 62 year old legs were trying to catch up with my zeal for the game. The kids and I had a blast and so did the bystanders who seemed to be intrigued by the old man that was preaching on the beach and now playing soccer with the children. When we finished I turned to the kids and invited them to our CHILDREN'S PROGRAM and Sunday services at our mission as I introduced them to our Haitian Pastor Isaac Royer. It blessed me that we bonded and connected but more than anything else I want them to follow Jesus! Currently we are feeding children two Saturdays a month in Haiti. We want to do more for them and we need your help! I know that I know that we are going to see a GREAT HARVEST OF SOULS IN HAITI as we disciple them to become 'FISHERS OF MEN'!

Together we are impacting the poor and changing children's lives.
