Pastor Oliver Stillwell of Dayspring Church in Porter, Texas joined me on an unforgettable week of ministry in Mexico! We started off with a bang dedicating Pastor Pepe's baby boy Diego in Cardboard-Landia. We ate fabulous memorable meals like Goat meat in a spicy broth for breakfast, enchiladas under the stars and extraordinary sopes the size of pizzas! The lion's share of our time was centered around ministry at the First Annual Ministers' conference for Vida Internacional Mexico.

Weeks before the conference I asked the Lord, "what do you want from me concerning this conference?" The Holy Spirit whispered, "wash their feet". The first night I ministered I forgot to bring the towels & water basin. The next day and night I just plan forgot. The final morning of the conference, Pastor Stillwell asked me if it would be ok if we could have a Foot Washing. My jaw dropped...he saw I was in shock, and to make a long story short it was God and it was good, it was the most spiritually significant event that took place during that very important time as we humbled ourselves with towels and tears.

After the conference we held an evangelistic extravaganza in Cardboard-Landia with 320 in attendance. We had a lot of fun and reached a crowd of folks who normally wouldn't set foot in a church. We targeted children and their families with choreographed kid songs, dance, dramatic story telling, puppets, delicious pozole soup, tortas, toys and bags of beans and rice for every family. If you send your pastor to me for a week on a mission trip adventure it will be good for him, good for you & good for God's kingdom! Your pastor deserves a break from his ordinary routine to use his ministerial skills on foreign soil. I guarantee his sermons will be more anointed, and he will return home refreshed, renewed and spilling over with 'ENTHUSIASM', which in the Greek literally means 'being full of God!' (over)
